11. Sistemas de evaluación:

Procedimiento	Peso primera convocatoria	Peso segunda convocatoria
Case studies: Students will work in groups (3 students) to prepare five suggested case studies that will be presented in weeks 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11. The five case studies will have a proportionate weight in the final assessment. A substantial portion of the grade is based on the quality of the oral presentations and on the ability to work in small group and to cooperate in the large group, evidenced in the presentation and discussion of the case studies.	30 %	30 %
Book: Students will read individually one book of their choice, among the books suggested by the lecturer, and will prepare a 2,000 words essay and a five minutes presentation. The grade is based on the quality of the reflection and book analysis, considering the topics covered in the course and the oral presentation.	30 %	30 %
Short written assignments: students will work individually in four shorter written assignments that will be delivered in weeks 2, 4, 8 and 10. The four written assignment will have a proportionate weight in the final assessment. The grade is based on the understanding of the topics covered in the course and the	20 %	20 % ability to connect different theoretical and empirical issues, as evidenced in the short written essay.

Students must attend and actively contribute to all lectures, seminars and case study presentations.	20 %	20 %
Total	100 %	100 %

Evaluación excepcional:

For those students that, for exceptional reasons, are not able to follow the classes, and subject to the approval of the Dean, the grades will depend on the submission of all the assignments (40%), plus a final examination on the textbook (30%), plus an essay (30 pages) on one subject agreed with the professor (40%).

12. Recursos de aprendizaje y apoyo tutorial:

Apart from the textbook, the professor will upload in the course website (UBUVirtual; <https://ubuvirtual.ubu.es/course/view.php?id=6560>) presentations, papers, links to webs and other references for the course.

The professor and the students will also contribute to a blog on corporate social responsibility: <http://corporatesocialresponsibilityblog.wordpress.com/> that is accessible by invitation only.
